ASSUMPTION OF RISK

THE UNDERSIGNED, in consideration of being allowed to enter the subject land for the stated activity

Activity: _________________________________________
Location: _________________________________________
Owner:    ________________________________________

and does hereby agree that Owner assumes no responsibility for his or her safety and the undersigned does hereby assume all such responsibility. Owner shall not be liable for injury or death incurred by the undersigned while on the lands of the Owner or while making use of any rights of way to and from these lands, or while making use of any transportation facilities which may be provided by Owner to, from, or over these lands.

FURTHER, the undersigned does hereby expressly assume the risks associated with the activity shown above, and understands that it may be dangerous; that the undersigned will not hold Owner responsible for any injury or death occurring while present on the lands.

FURTHER, the undersigned recognizes that there may be dangerous conditions on the subject lands which are both known and unknown, concealed and unconcealed, for example, concealed fences, uncovered wells, and other conditions which may be hazardous and could cause injury or death to the undersigned. The undersigned assume the risk associated with these concealed, dangerous conditions and agrees not to hold Owner responsible for injury or death which may occur to himself, herself or to any other person as a result of these dangerous conditions, whether concealed or unconcealed, known or unknown.

__________________________________________
__________________________________________
(Print Name)
__________________________________________
Date