Highlander to Wildcat Program (H₂W)

Signed April 9th, 2020

The following guidelines will govern the agreement between Gordon State College and Fort Valley State University & State University as it pertains to the Highlander to Wildcat Program (H₂W):

- The Transfer Admission Guarantee will be in effect starting Fall Semester, 2020.
- The program will be called the Highlander to Wildcat Program and program participants will be identified as H₂W students at Gordon State College.
- The guarantee assures general admission to Fort Valley State University but not necessarily admission to a specific major that may have enrollment limitations. The Fort Valley State University advising center at Gordon State College will work with students to encourage participation in majors where there are current openings at Fort Valley State University.
- This agreement governs those students who apply to Fort Valley State University who are encouraged to attend Gordon State College for the AA/AS degree and meet the criteria for admission stated hereunto. This agreement does not prohibit other Gordon State College students who meet admission requirements to transfer to Fort Valley State University.
- The terms of this agreement will be reviewed each year and must be renewed by the participating institutions annually. Either party may revoke this agreement upon written declaration of such intent.

Student Requirements:

To qualify for the Transfer Admission Guarantee and the Highlander to Wildcat Program, students must:

1. Complete an Intent to Transfer Form and have it signed by a Gordon State College advisor by the application deadline.
2. Submit the Undergraduate Application for Admission and application fee to Fort Valley State University. The application fee is only applicable if they have not already completed the application process at Fort Valley State University. Applications should be completed during the last semester at Gordon State College prior to completion of the associate degree and before the end of Fort Valley State University's application filing deadline.
3. Complete an AA/AS degree at Gordon State College which would be transferable to Fort Valley State University satisfying all areas of Gordon State College's core curriculum.

4. Earn a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0 in transferable course work.
