HYBRID COURSES

Find the starting time of the class meeting sessions in the chart. The final exam will be given at the corresponding two-hour testing period indicated in the chart.

RESCHEDULING AN EXAM

Students who have three or more finals on the same day may appeal to take the third and/or fourth exam on another day or days. Students with multiple finals scheduled for the same time should also complete an Academic Request form. These forms are available online, and students can file a an Academic Request by submitting the form to the appropriate program assistant for the department/school of the course(s) being appealed.

The deadline to submit an Academic Request to reschedule an exam is two weeks before final exams begin to allow resolution and full processing of the appeal before the originally scheduled date/time for the final exam.
