

Joshua McNease

RESIDENT DIRECTOR

Born and raised in Atlanta, Georgia, Joshua is a motivated professional with experience in sports operations, student affairs, and business management. A former collegiate football player at Gordon State College, Joshua began developing a strong foundation in leadership, teamwork, and student engagement through experiences in football operations and Housing and Residence Life.

His professional and educational journey later took him to the United Kingdom, where he earned a master's degree in business while continuing to compete in collegiate American football. These experiences broadened his perspective, strengthened his adaptability, and enhanced his ability to connect with individuals from diverse backgrounds.

Passionate about student success and community building, Joshua is committed to developing meaningful relationships, supporting students in reaching their goals, and creating positive and engaging campus experiences. His background in athletics, higher education, and business continues to shape his approach to leadership and service.
