ABOUT ALICIA

Alicia Dorton currently serves as the Director of Counseling and Accessibility Services at Gordon State College. She holds a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology and she earned her Master's Degree from Georgia State University in May of 2010. She is a licensed professional counselor in Georgia. Before joining Gordon State in January 2016, she proudly served our Veterans within the Veterans Administration and worked with spinal cord injuries at the Shepherd Center in Atlanta. She is a member of the Licensed Professional Counselors Association (LCPA). She is a strong advocate for people with disabilities and looks forward to continual growth within the profession. Alicia and her amazing husband have been married for 22 years and are proud pet parents to a beautiful German short-haired pointer named "Ella Mae."
